RIOJA EDICIÓN LIMITADA 2002

RATED 95 POINTS

WINE SPECTATOR
November 15, 2005 Issue

“This rich red tastes like blackberry jam on toasted brioche. Thick on the palate, oozing with sweet fruit and oak, with muscular tannins that barely ripple the surface. Yet it remains fresh, with a clean, floral finish. Balanced and lively. A typical for the region, extraordinary for the vintage. Shows the hallmarks of the international style, but is it authentic Rioja? Does it matter? Drink now through 2015. 1,500 cases made.”

MEMSIE WATERWHEEL 2004

RATED 90 POINTS

ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE
October 2005 Issue 161

"The 2004 Memsie is a blend of 71% Shiraz, 22% Cabernet Sauvignon, and 7% Malbec aged in a combination of new and used American oak. Its dense ruby/purple color is followed by pure, ripe, black raspberry, blackberry, and blueberry aromas interwoven with hints of wood as well as licorice. Medium to full-bodied, with great fruit and soft tannin, it can be enjoyed over the next 2-3 years."

BENDIGO WATERWHEEL 2003

SKU + 00000

RATED 90 POINTS

ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE
October 2005 Issue 161

“The opulent, dense ruby/purple-hued 2003 Shiraz is outrageously good. A 100% Shiraz aged in one- and two-year-old American hogsheads, this deep, full-bodied, impeccably pure, deep, hedonistic turn-on is filled with fruit. Consumers should be buying this one by the caseload.”

OLD PLAINS SHIRAZ 2003

RATED 93 POINTS

ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE
October 2004 Issue 155

“The 2003 Shiraz offers a dense purple color along with a gorgeous perfume of acacia flowers, ground pepper, beef blood, blackberries, and cassis. This layered, multidimensional, full-bodied, chewy, pure, impressively endowed 2003 displays no hard edges. Drink it over the next 5-10 years. Not many Adelaide Hills wines possess this type of intensity and power.”

BODEGA NUMANTHIA TERMES TERMANTHIA 2001

RATED 96+ POINTS

ROBERT PARKER WINE ADVOCATE
02-28-03 Issue 145

"Produced from a small 11-acre plot planted on sandy soil, with tiny yields and ungrafted vines planted in the second half of the 19th century, the 2001 Termanthia boasts an inky/ruby/purple color as well as an explosive perfume of blackberries, raspberries, vanilla, smoke, licorice, and coffee. Full-bodied, with great purity, intensity, and a multilayered mouthfeel, this young, primary Spanish red should age beautifully for 10-12 years, at the minimum."
