Bronco Wine Company
Colores del Sol Malbec 2015

Malbec's are known for their power and intensity. They offer rich fruit similar to Cabernet Sauvignon, along with the plush character of Merlot. The classic food pairing for Argentine Malbec is grilled meat, but Colores del Sol's bright flavors make it a highly versatile food-pairing wine.

Henry's Drive
Morse Code Shiraz 2014

Top 25 under $25 — Vancouver Playhouse Wine Festival

Previous Vintage: 90 Points — James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion (Mar 14, 2011)

This wine is fruit driven and made with minimal oak contact to allow the fruit flavors and regional characters to be at the forefront. With lifted floral lavender, spearmint, plum, cherry fruit, hints of spice and licorice this is a very aromatic wine. The palate is medium bodied and elegant, with fleshy plum fruit and cool-climate rose and lavender characters as well as hints of spearmint; finishing with a soft and smooth tannin structure.

Kaesler
Stonehorse Shiraz 2012

(raised in three-year-old barrels): Bright purple. Deeply pitched blackberry, cherry and dark chocolate scents are lifted and sharpened by a peppery, spicy nuance. Fleshy and sweet on entry, then more taut in the mid-palate, offering bitter cherry and mocha flavors and a touch of licorice. Closes spicy and long, with very good focus and grip. This wine is still very young and in need of some time to unwind.

Kaesler Cabernet Sauvignon 2011

Strong primary core with ruby rim. Very earthy Cabernet with olive leaf, cinnamon and layered with red stone fruit, Satsuma plums and blueberry. Elegant palate, soft, silky and very drinkable in its youth; partly due to the nature of the vintage, which has yielded some great wines despite a varied growing season. This wine has good medium term potential, ideal cellaring is 8-10 years.

Kaesler Old Bastard Shiraz 2010

96+ Points — Lisa Perrotti-Brown, Wine Advocate #205 Feb 2013

Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2010 Shiraz Old Bastard is a little closed with black fruit, licorice and chocolate box scents alongside some floral and cloves nuances. Full-bodied and concentrated with rich and seductive flavors, the vibrant acid frame persists through a long, spicy and layered finish. Drink it from 2015 to 2025+.

95 Points — Wine Spectator, April 30, 2013

Velvety, round and beautifully focused, lifting its blackberry, currant and delicate spice profile into the long, expressive finish. Powerful, but not weighty. Best from 2014 through 2020. 500 cases made. —HS

Domaine Roger Sabon
Cuvée Prestige 2009

96 Points — Wine Advocate #197 Oct 2011

"The monumental 2009 Châteauneuf du Pape Cuvée Prestige is a creative blend of 60% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 10% Mourvedre, and the rest grapes such as Vaccarese, Muscardin, Cinsault, Terret Noir and Counoise. Most of the fruit is aged in foudre, with the Syrah and Mourvedre components aged in new oak. The fabulous 2009 offers an opaque purple color along with a gorgeous nose of charcoal, burning embers, black currants, soy, Asian plum sauce, blackberries and kirsch. The wine's complexity is nearly off the charts. Moreover, once it hits the palate, the high glycerin, silky tannins, low acidity and luxurious concentration provide a compelling drinking experience. This spectacular Châteauneuf du Pape is one of the wine's of the vintage. It can be drunk now or cellared for 15+ years."

Clos du Mont Olivet
Châteauneuf-du-Pape Clos du Mont Olivet 2010

90-92 Points — Robert Parker, Wine Advocate

The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Tradition exhibits a deep ruby/purple color, silky tannins, good acidity, impressive precision as well as aromatic uplift. Similar to, but less evolved than the 2009, with deeper, more concentrated fruit, it should drink well for 10-15 years.

The Sabon family that owns Clos du Mont Olivet was one of the first to estate bottle Châteauneuf du Pape over 80 years ago. This is a highly respected source of traditional wines that age wonderfully. The family's habit of bottling as they sold the wine has been abandoned, and the result is far more consistent offerings than existed 15 or 20 years ago. The 2009s are beautiful wines, but the 2010s will ultimately eclipse them. Both vintages merit serious interest.

Armand de Brignac
"Ace of Spades" Brut Gold Champagne

Rated the #1 Champagne in the world!

98 Points — José Peñín, Annual Peñín Guide to Spanish Wine

96 Points — Fine Champagne Magazine, Issue 4

In search for the 100 best champagnes for 2010, several blind-tasting sessions were conducted throughout the past year. Over 1,000 champagnes of all styles and price levels were critiqued, from non-vintage to prestige cuvees and sought-after collectors' items. The result: Armand de Brignac topped the list, ranking officially as the #1 champagne in the world.

"We witnessed in our glasses a fine, smooth and creamy champagne with underlying power and great mineral freshness. Classic, restrained and energetic in style, it has everything a truly great champagne can offer. It's accentuated fruit-forwardness is what makes it so irresistibly palatable today. Armand de Brignac's flashy golden bottle is eye-catching in the true meaning of the expression. It is always rewarding when the content of the bottle matches its price and reputation."

92+ Points — Vinous, Oct 2015

Intense ruby red with reflections of violet. The sangiovese and Alicante contribute to the structure and complexity of the blend with spice and liquorice flavors. The Syrah and Carignan contribute a fresh dark berry component. The wine hints at a Southern Rhone style with black olive aromas, and ripe fruit.

Sierra Cantabria Crianza 2007

90 Points — Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate, # 195 (June 2011)

The 2007 Crianza was aged in seasoned French and American oak for 15 months before bottling without filtration. Smoke, leather, cinnamon, incense, and blackberry are some of the elements jumping from the glass of this smooth-textured, generously stuffed, savory offering. Excellent volume and length suggest that this exceptional value will provide enjoyment through 2019.

Bodegas Muga Muga Blanco 2011

91 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Sep 12

90% viura and 10% malvasia. Fermented in new French oak and aged for three months on its fine lees. Pale gold. Suave, floral-accented aromas of candied orchard fruits, orange zest, white flowers and brioche. Pliant and broad on entry, then tighter in the middle, offering gently sweet pear and citrus fruit flavors and a touch of vanilla. Finishes sappy and very long, with lingering spiciness and a hint of anise. This wine delivers outstanding value.

Bodegas Breca Breca 2011

91 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Oct 2013

(made from garnacha vines that were reportedly planted between 1925 and 1945; aged for 21 months in small French oak): Opaque ruby. Ripe blackberry and boysenberry aromas are complemented by deeper-pitched notes of mocha and licorice. At once rich and lively, offering vibrant dark fruit preserve flavors and a kick of peppery spices. Smooth, seamless and sweet on the very persistent finish, which leaves notes of blueberry and espresso behind.

Bodegas Muga Muga Reserva 2010

92 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Sep/Oct 14

(70% tempranillo, 20% garnacha, 7% mazuelo and 3% graciano; fermented in large oak vats and aged for 24 months in oak casks of varying size): Opaque ruby. Musky, deeply pitched aromas of ripe red fruit, game, lavender and roasted coffee. Shows very good spicy lift in the mouth, offering sweet raspberry and cherry flavors and an undercurrent of smoky minerals. Finishes with excellent focus and thrust; the slowly building tannins meld smoothly with the wine's dense fruit. Age this wine for at least another five years, with confidence.

Prado Enea Gran Reserva 2005

95 Points — Wine Advocate, #202 Aug 2012

The 2005 Prado Enea Gran Reserva spends 36-months in oak, nine months in new oak after which it is racked into American oak that is "semi-new" (i.e. a new barrel that is "broken in" with a wine beforehand). It has an unashamedly opulent bouquet of primal, ripe, boysenberry, mulberry, dark chocolate and crushed violets that blossom with aeration. The palate is full-bodied with crisp acidity cutting through the pure blackberry and cassis fruit. It has wonderful focus and intensity, though the finish demonstrates convincing composure. This is an outstanding Gran Reserva whose silky texture will instantly win you over. Drink 2013-2030+

Perry's Blend 200793 Points — Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #192, Dec 2010

"The 2007 Perry's Blend (42% Cabernet Sauvignon, 33% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot, all from the estate vineyards on Spring Mountain) exhibits tremendous aromas of flowers, blue, red and black fruits, graphite and forest floor. Elegant yet powerful, rich, concentrated, pure and impeccably well-balanced, it reminds me of a hypothetical blend of a Bordeaux and a cool climate, Cabernet-based red from Napa. The Original Icelandic Spirit

Olgerdin Egill Skallagrimsson

Brennivin Aquavit

Brennivin is a caraway flavoured aquavit (un-sweetened schnapps) and is the country's signature spirit. Introduced in 1935, Brennivin is made from the extraordinarily pure Icelandic water imparting it with a deliciously sweet taste and a soft finish. Have no doubts however this is an aquavit, and Brennivin has the right level of intensity with notes of caraway seeds. Best enjoyed on its own ice cold or use its unique taste to experiment in cocktails.

Wilfred Wong Bevmo!

Best Buy

Beverage Testing Institute, June 14, 2013

Bulzai a Nama-chozo sake, which means it is left un-pasteurized until the bottling stage; this adds zestiness to the mouthfeel and preserves of the flavours normally lost to the full pasteurization process. Refreshing aromas of bananas and tropical fruit. The finish offers hints of licorice and white pepper over stonedriven mineral notes. Best served chilled. Bulzai "hits the mark" with a wide range of appetizers and fish dishes.

The World's Best Standard Lager 2011 World Beer Awards

Egils Gull offers you the classic crisp lager experience: Golden colour, small white head, light toasted malt nose, grainy aroma and fresh lemony hops in the mouth. No wonder Gull has received a number of prizes, including the "World's Best Standard Lager" at the World Beer Awards 2011.

Gull is one of Iceland's best known brands and has been enjoyed by Icelanders since March 1989, when the 70 year beer prohibition in Iceland was lifted. It is brewed in accordance with the Munchener helles method from locally grown barley and the pure Icelandic water. Gull is our pride. The racehorse we entrust to lead the way for our ambitious line of beers.

Borg Bruggþús Leifur Nordic Saison

Leifur is named after the Icelandic explorer Leifur (the Lucky) Eiríksson, the first European to discover North America – almost 500 years before Christopher Columbus. Leifur landed in a luscious place with plentiful stores of salmon, vines and grapes, and so named the land Vinland (Wineland). Leifur is brewed with organic arctic thyme and heather which, together with the Belgium yeast, gives the beer a dry, grassy taste and a delicately balanced aroma of citrus and pepper.

Beer Advocate

"Garún is named for the strong and brave heroine of one of Iceland's most popular folktales "The deacon of Dark River (Myrká)." A tale of ghosts, undying love, and life triumphing over death told against the backdrop of elements essential to Iceland's character: ice, snow, and flooding waters whirling dark and mysterious. The same elements that inspire this rich, intense, bold and swirlingly varied Icelandic stout. Garún is a dark aura of intense richness and haunting aroma with notes of chocolate, licorice and coffee. Skál!"
