O Fournier Urban UCO Sauvignon Blanc 2010

The grapes of this Sauvignon Blanc are from three appellations in Argentina- Vista Flores, El Cepillo, and Mendoza. The clusters are selected at the winery and sorted twice by hand. The wine expresses notes of lemon, green apple and gooseberry with nice acidity. Grapefruit and vegetal characteristics.

O Fournier Urban UCO Torrontes 2010

88 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

"Straw-yellow. Musky brown spices, quinine and lemon peel on the nose. Juicy, spicy and quite dry, with an intriguing umami texture and a faintly metallic quality from the wine's mineral element. Finishes with good floral, spicy grip and a light touch."

Henry's Drive Vignerons Morse Code Shiraz 2014

This wine is fruit driven and made with minimal oak contact to allow the fruit flavors and regional characters to be at the forefront. With lifted floral lavender, spearmint, plum, cherry fruit, hints of spice and licorice this is a very aromatic wine. The palate is medium bodied and elegant, with fleshy plum fruit and cool-climate rose and lavender characters as well as hints of spearmint; finishing with a soft and smooth tannin structure.

Henry's Drive Vignerons
Pillar Box Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2008

89 Points — Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate Issue #191 (Oct 2010)

"About 30% of the 2008 Pillar Box Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon was matured in oak, 90% French and 10% American. This label is essentially a barrel selection of the best barrels destined for the Pillar Box wine. Due to the warm 2008 vintage, about 17% of the fruit this year came from cooler Mt Benson. Deep garnet-purple colored, it has pronounced aromas of warm blackcurrant, kirsch, spice box, cloves, and bay leaf plus a touch of mint. Very crisp in the mouth, the acid cuts through the rich, full bodied warm berry fruit while a medium level of fine tannins provide just enough texture. It has a good long finish. Drinking now, it will be at its best before 2017."

Fowles Wines
Ladies Who Shoot Their Lunch Shiraz 2013

90+ Points — Wine Advocate Feb 2015

Deep garnet-purple, the 2013 Ladies Who Shoot Their Lunch Shiraz is just slightly reduced to begin, which gives way after a little swirling to a great core of cassis, crushed blackberry and black cherry notes with touches of earth, tar and Szechuan pepper. Medium-bodied, it's quite taut in the mouth at this youthful stage with a firm backbone and long finish. I may be judging it a little harshly at this stage due to the reduction because it is by all other accounts a very fine Shiraz.

Cabernet Sauvignon 2011

90 Points — Vinous March 2016

(aged for 20 months in French oak barrels, 25% of new): Brilliant ruby. Spicy, deeply pitched aromas of cherry, blackcurrant and cracked pepper, with a hint of mocha emerging slowly. Sweet, fleshy and broad on entry, then tighter in the mid-palate, offering sappy dark fruit and floral pastille flavors and a musky licorice quality. The floral element builds with aeration and carries through a very long, supple finish that's framed by smooth, building tannins.

Federspiel Terrassen Gruner Veltliner 2015

The grapes for Grüner Veltliner Federspiel Terrassen were carefully hand-picked from steep terraced vineyards throughout the Wachau valley with its specific microclimate and meagre primary rock soils. It exhibits a very typical and consistent style of Grüner Veltliner from Wachau with plenty of fruit and a pronounced mineral character. The 2015 appears bright greenish yellow in colour and offers distinctive aromas on the nose; nuances of golden delicious apple, white pepper, some lychee and delicate herbal notes, hints of exotic fruits. Medium bodied with a crisp acidity, very harmonious, juicy fruits and spicy in the finish, a classic Federspiel!

Domäne Wachau

Smaragd Terrassen Gruner Veltliner 2013

"Top 100 Wineries of the World" — Wine and Spirit Magazine 2012

The best grapes from different small terraced vineyards between Loiben and Spitz were hand-picked for this premium blend. The overall goal was to create a wine that reflects the typical Wachau wine style which is defined by the unique climate and primary rock soils. Smaragd wines are dry, full-bodied and complex with plenty of finesse and great aging potential.

Bright straw yellow. Subtle and playful on the nose with aromas of white pepper, some tobacco and exotic fruit, mango and pineapple. The refreshing acidity pairs with the powerful, elegant body and a medium alcohol level. Spicy white pepper and a hint of fresh herbs on the palate. Long finish!

Gold — 2015 National Wine Awards of Canada

90 Points — John Schreiner, July 2015

Deep ruby red in colour. Toasty vanilla oak intertwines with rich mocha, dark chocolate and ripe blackcurrants. It shows hints of Christmas cake and classic white pepper notes. Soft and supple, with a fine grained structure and excellent length. The toast and red/black fruits are very apparent on the mid palate. Drinking fabulously right now, this wine will integrate more over time and become more elegant.

SpierHead Pinot Gris 2015

Gold — 2016 National Wine Awards of Canada

Gold Medal — 2016 Best of B.C. Wine awards

SpierHead is located in Kelowna but sources its Pinot Gris fruit further south in Summerland, from a vineyard called Golden Retreat. And a golden treat this is. Produced without oak contact, it's medium bodied yet displays substantial mouth feel. Green-apple and pear-like fruit are lifted by an effervescent, vibrant character that settles into a fine-chalk texture. There's a mineral-like sensation as it moves into the long finish.

Yantai Chateau Changyu Castel Cabernet Gernischt 2005

Cabernet Gernischt is a varietal that traces its origin back to pre phylloxera 19th century Bordeaux and is genetically identical to Carmenere. The wine shows aromas of blackcurrant, raspberry and spice on the nose. The pallet delivers a medium bodied balanced profile with delicate and well integrated tannin. Aged 12 months in French oak and then cellared for 8 years before release. Pairs well with Sichuan cuisine, roasted duck, sautéed meat or grilled chicken.

Domaine Roger Sabon Le Sabouinet 2012

John Livingston-Learmonth — Nov 2013 -www.drinkrhone.com

"Steady, bright red; light spice, appealing red fruit coulis air with a wee baked extra intensity, a hover of sun. The palate is similar – offers real easy red fruit juice, is round and facile. Favours food over aperitif, light dishes, though. Attractive scent and herbs come through on the finish, which has a square, nicely knit sign-off, some heat there. 13.5°. To 2017"

Domaine Roger Sabon Côtes Du Rhône Rouge 2010

Kirsch, ripe black fruit and earthy spice are followed by a lush, richly fruity, engaging palate – soft tannins, nice minerally balance too. Terrific value for drinking now and over next couple of years or so.

Vineyard holdings are in many of Chateauneuf's top sites (Les Cabrières, La Crau and Nalys among others) – most of their vines are between 50 and 90 years old and mainly planted to Grenache, Syrah, Cinsault and Mourvèdre. He destems and ferments in small concrete vats and small stainless steel cuvees. The wine is matured in large and small barrels and is neither filtered nor fined and they are some of the finest wines in the southern Rhône. This is a wonderful first sip from a sensational southern Rhône harvest.

Domaine Lafage Miraflops Rose 2015

90 Points — Wine Advocate April 2016

The 2015 Cotes du Roussillon Miraflops Rose offers lots of framboise, strawberry and rose petal characteristics in medium-bodied, juicy, gorgeously quaffable style. This is prime hot summer day stuff that will hit the spot over the coming six months.

I've raved time and time again about the quality - and value - coming from Domaine Lafage's Jean-Marc Lafage. A large estate that pulls from vines in the Agly Valley, the Aspres region, and vines around the estate and close the Mediterranean Sea, they've just completed work on a new, state of the art winery and cellar. I can only imagine the quality will continue to soar at this estate.

Domaine Lafage Bastide Miraflors 2013

93 Points — Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #213, Jun 2014

"I have loved the wines from Domaine Lafage in the past, and this 2013 Bastide Miraflors Cotes Catalanes is one of the greatest red wine values I have tasted in the last year or so. A custom cuvee put together by Eric Solomon and Jean-Marc Lafage, it is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache that spent one year in 80% concrete tank (Grenache) and 500-liter demi-muids (Syrah). From a Roussillon vineyard dominated by gallets roules that resembles many Chateauneuf du Pape vineyards, the wine undergoes a long maceration of six weeks. The result is an inky/blue/purple-colored wine offering a big, sweet bouquet of blueberries, blackberries, acacia flowers, pepper and spice. This full-bodied, opulent, majestic dry red unleashes tremendous ripeness, richness and intensity. One would normally think such a superb, remarkable wine would cost over $50 a bottle, but this beauty is available for an astonishing $14 a bottle. You'll have to taste it to believe it! It should drink well for 2-5 years."

Tessellae Old Vines 2013

94 Points — eRobertParker.com #215, Oct 2014

"Another incredible wine that's shockingly good for the price, the 2013 Tessellae Old Vines checks in as a blend of 40% Grenache, 40% Syrah and 20% Mourvedre that was aged all in concrete tank. It offers brilliant notes of black cherries, blueberry, licorice, clove and spring flowers in its medium to full-bodied, gorgeously pure profile. Showing more and more finesse and elegance with time in the glass, as well as classic Roussillon minerality on the finish, it has loads of fruit and texture yet is never heavy, cumbersome or cloying. It's hard to believe you can get this quality for the price, but the consumer is the big winner here. Enjoy this rock star effort over the coming 4-5 years, although I wouldn't be surprised to see it evolve for longer."

Cuvee Nicolas 2012

93 Points — Jeb Dunnuck, eRobertParker.com #212, Apr 2014

"The 2012 Cotes Catalanes Cuvee Nicolas is an off-the-hook value. Named after Jean-Marc's son and made from 100% Grenache from higher elevation sites in the Aspres region, fermented with 20% stems and aged half in demi-muid, it offers layers of kirsch, underbrush, licorice and serious floral notes in its medium to full-bodied, elegant and seamless profile. I've raved time and time again about the quality - and value - coming from Domaine Lafage's Jean-Marc Lafage. A large estate that pulls from vines in the Agly Valley, the Aspres region, and vines around the estate and close the Mediterranean Sea, they've just completed work on a new, state of the art winery and cellar. I can only imagine the quality will continue to soar at this estate.

Chateauneuf du Pape Les Olivets 2012

90 Points — Wine Advocate October 2014

The 2012 Châteauneuf du Pape Les Olivets is a mostly foudre-aged blend of 80% Grenache, 10% Syrah and 10% Cinsault. It's a ripe, forward and textured effort that has plenty of sweet blackberries, cherries, garrigue and olive aromas and flavors. While the overall impression here is of upfront fruit and texture, it's has good complexity and plenty of depth of fruit. Drink it over the coming 5-7 years.

92 Points — Vinous, April 2015

Opaque ruby. Highly aromatic bouquet of black raspberry, peppery spices and potpourri, with a zesty mineral nuance providing focus. Spicy and penetrating, with very good clarity to its lively flavors of red berry preserves, rose pastille and spicecake. Shows potent floral and spicecake character on the long, gently tannic finish, which leaves a hint of smoky minerals behind. - Josh Reynolds

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Tradition 2012

90 Points — eRobertParker.com #215, Oct 2014

A polished, elegant Châteauneuf du Pape, Domaine de la Solitude's 2012 offers impressive ripeness and depth in its kirsch, blackberry, licorice, spice-box and crushed-flower aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied, layered and silky, with terrific polish to its tannin, it is slightly mid-weight, but will evolve gracefully on its balance and overall harmony.

94 Points — eRobertParker.com #215, Oct 2014

"Much more concentrated than the traditional cuvée, the 2012 Châteauneuf du Pape La Cuvee du Papet is a blend of 75% Grenache, 15% Syrah and 10% Mourvedre, from the Montalivet, La Crau, Palestor, Bois Dauphin lieux-dits, that was aged 85% in foudre and 15% in demi-muids and small barrels. Its deep purple color is followed by fabulous notes of black raspberry, currants, crushed rock and peppery herbs. This flows to a medium to full-bodied, structured and classically put together Châteauneuf that has fresh acidity and no shortage of tannin. Domaine de la Solitude
Châteauneuf-du-Pape Reserve Secret 2007

95+ Points — Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #185, October 2009

"A wine that seems to bridge the gap between a full international style (such as the Barberini) and a traditional style (such as the Cornelia Constanza) is the 2007 Chateauneuf du Pape Reserve Secrete, which was aged in small barrels (65%) and tanks (35%). A blend of 55% Syrah and 45% Grenache, it boasts a deep ruby/purple hue, massive, powerful flavors of black fruits, licorice, acacia flowers, and a hint of toast, full body, and a singular, dense personality. It needs 3-4 years of bottle age, and is meant for 20+ years of cellaring."

Brothers Michel and Jean Lancon have one of the appellation's oldest estates, and as indicated in the fabulous new book on Chateauneuf du Pape by Harry Karis, Domaine de la Solitude first estate bottled their wine in 1815! Quality was fabulous in the sixties and early seventies, then dropped off until about a decade ago. Over the last ten years, these wines have gone from strength to strength, and are now some of the finest of the appellation. They are made in distinctively different styles with the regular cuvee and the Cornelia Constanza very classic interpretations of Chateauneuf du Pape, and the Cuvee Barberini and Reserve Secrete more modern-styled efforts. Essentially, there is something for everyone from Domaine de la Solitude. This large, 100-acre property is one of the few Chateauneuf du Pape estates whose vineyard is situated in one particular sector, the lieu-dit called La Solitude. This was my first look at the 2007s as the estate generally refuses to show unbottled barrel samples, which I totally respect. The proprietors stated that no Cornelia Constanza or Reserve Secrete would be produced in 2008."

Armand de Brignac
"Ace of Spades" Brut Gold Champagne

Rated the #1 Champagne in the world!

98 Points — José Peñín, Annual Peñín Guide to Spanish Wine

96 Points — Fine Champagne Magazine, Issue 4

In a search for the 100 best champagnes of 2010, several blind-tasting sessions were conducted throughout the past year. Over 1,000 champagnes of all styles and price levels were critiqued, from non-vintage to prestige cuvees and sought-after collectors' items. The result: Armand de Brignac topped the list, ranking officially as the #1 champagne in the world.

"We witnessed in our glasses a fine, smooth and creamy champagne with underlying power and great mineral freshness. Classic, restrained and energetic in style, it has everything a truly great champagne can offer. Its accentuated fruit-forwardness is what makes it so irresistibly palatable today. Armand de Brignac's flashy golden bottle is eye-catching in the true meaning of the expression. It is always rewarding when the content of the bottle matches its price and reputation."

Armand de Brignac Rosé Champagne

Armand de Brignac has earned international acclaim from the world's top wine critics. These include a rating of 98/100 points from world renowned critic José Peñín, a 4.9 out of 5 score from writer Kåre Halldén, and 9/10 points from critic Davor Butkovic.

Armand de Brignac Champagne Rosé is created by a complex process called assemblage, in which white wine is blended with 12% still red wine, produced from old vines of Pinot Noir grown in the Champagne region specifically to produce Rosé Champagne. Grapes selected exclusively from Premier Cru and Grand Cru vineyards in the Le Marne region's Montagne de Reims, Vallée de la Marne and Côte des Blancs terroirs. Only the top fraction of first wine pressing of our traditional Champenois Coquart press is used, for a high quality yield. Each Armand de Brignac cuvée includes a special 100% still wine dosage aged 9 months in oak casks from Burgundy.

Weingut Von Winning WinWin Riesling 2015

Mainly sourced in top vineyards in Deidesheim, the 2015 Riesling trocken Win Win offers clear, intense, ripe peach and plum aromas on the nose. Medium-bodied, with good flesh and intense fruit flavors, this is a lovely, juicy, well structured, lingering aromatic Riesling with a fine mineral grip in the finish. The Win Win shows the erotic character of Riesling and is definitely a crowd-pleaser -- also for intellectuals.

Weingut Von Winning Paradiesgarten Riesling 2014

89 Points — eRobertParker.com #222, Dec 2015

From a cooler, east-facing vineyard on sandstone soils, the 2014 Deidesheimer Paradiesgarten Riesling Trocken shows a cool and clear, intensely fruity bouquet with coolish stony aromas. Finely intense and concentrated on the elegant palate, this is a finesse-full Riesling with a high aromatic intensity and a stimulatingly pure and salty finish. This is a straight and finely racy Buntsandstein classic; it is light and with a deliciously juicy fruit and salty finesse in the finish.

Weingut Von Winning

Weingut Von Winning Sauvignon Blanc "I" 2013

I thought tasting this '13, with the '12 still available, was mere lip-service, or that I'd register when '12 would be gone and we'd move to its lighter lesser sibling. But no. This is a high-water mark not only for German Sauv-Bl, but for any Sauv-Bl, a wine of amazingly intelligent craftsmanship; deft, almost delicate, currant and (again) seeming "sweet;" the smartest imaginable use of cask; an entirely seductive, graceful intelligent wine. Don't even THINK of missing it. It's world-class, and very stirring. — Terry Theise

Ungeheuer GG Riesling 2013

94 Points — eRobertParker.com #215, Oct 2014

At this early stage, the citrus colored 2013 Ungeheuer Riesling trocken GG seems to be von Winning's most impressive Riesling of the vintage. Intense, ripe and piquant fruit aromas of limes and grapefruit on the nose lead to a very juicy and salty palate where an almost perfect amalgam of minerals and fruit juice gives a very elegantly structured, medium to full-bodied wine. Then comes a delicious finish followed by a persistent and piquant length.

Fattoria di Magliano Heba 2012

89 Points — Vinous December 2014

Palish red. Bright aromas of flinty red cherry, redcurrant and plum are complicated by smoke and truffle. Moderately dense and sweet, with fresh red fruit flavors lifted by dried flowers. Finishes with lovely savory persistence and substantial but fine tannins. Just lacks the concentration of the best vintages, but I consider Heba to be one of the top three Morellinos almost every vintage.

La Mozza I Perazzi 2014

"Perazzi, the foundation of the La Mozza winery, was created to be unlike most typical Morellino di Scansano. The blend, which includes Mediterranean varieties, is more expressive and better demonstrates the potential of Maremma's terroir. I Perazzi is named after the pear-like fruit that grow on our estate and are depicted on the label. Juicy dark fruit mingles with spice and licorice on the palate. The bright, ripe cherry and soft texture makes this a natural match with fresh Mediterranean flavors and dishes."

Tenuta di Torcalvano Graccino
Torcalvano Vino Nobiledi Montepulciano 2007

89 Points — Wine Advocate #190, Aug 2010

The 2007 Vino Nobile di Montepulciano from TorCalvano is made in a fairly rich, fruit-forward style that gains focus and clarity with air. As attractive as this is, one could reasonably expect a little more Sangiovese character. Subtle notes of earthiness, leather and spices inform a long, generous finish that is penalized by a slight dryness in the tannin.

Tenuta Campo al Mare
Campo al Mare Bolgheri D.O.C 2013

89 Points — Wine Advocate October 2015

Campo al Mare's 2013 Bolgheri Rosso opens to spicy notes that are intense and exotic in personality. The quality of fruit is thick and ripe with dark tones of blackberry and dried cherry. This blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot has a sweet and soft spot in the mouth but it also offers bright intensity, lushness and pulpy fruit. The wine is delicious to drink but that fullness of fruit gives it a one-dimensional approach.

La Mozza Aragone 2010

92+ Points — Vinous, October 2015

A huge, powerful wine, the 2010 Aragone hits the palate with serious intensity. The flavors are dark, bold and intense, with important contributions from Alicante, Syrah and Carignan that add complexity to the Sangiovese. The 2010 could use another year or two to come together more fully, but I imagine it will always remain a bit burly. Hints of smoke, game, iron, incense and tobacco add layers of nuance to a decidedly virile, imposing Maremma red that begs to be served at the dinner table.

Calcarole Amarone 2009

"Red Wine of the Year"

Tre Bicchieri — Vini d'Italia, Gambero Rosso 2014

The grapes are selected from the vines of the rocky and stony hill of Calcarole, which rises above the Villa di Rovereti in Negrar. The Amarone Calcarole draws its' vigour and structure from the particular terroir; poor and stony and with perfect sun exposure of the terraces where the vines grow. The wine has an intense and balanced bouquet with rich, concentrated palate and a high degree of elegance. The wine is aged for at least 3 years in oak barrels and stored for 6 to 12 months in the bottle. Calcarole is a blend of Corvina 60%, Corvinone 17% Rondi- nella 3%, Barbera 10%, Sangiovese 10%.

Astrolabe
Awatere Valley Sauvignon Blanc 2015

95 Points — Bob Campbell Master of Wine, November 17th, 2015

"A fine example of the Awatere Valley Sauvignon Blanc style with gooseberry, green capsicum, nettle, wet stone mineral and a suggestion of tomato leaf. The taut acidity helps drive a lengthy finish. Very stylish wine. Gives a nod in the direction of Sancerre."

Astrolabe Pinot Noir 2012

89 Points — Vinous Sept 2014

Good dark red. Pure, scented aromas of black raspberry, strawberry and orange zest, plus hints of licorice and black pepper. Intense dark raspberry and spice flavors are nicely framed by ripe, harmonious acidity. This well-balanced pinot finishes firm-edged, spicy and persistent, with noteworthy breadth.

J.G. Carrión Opera Prima Charmat Brut

#10 Imported Sparkling Wine in USA — Shaken's Impact Newsletter, June 2013

The Opera Prima Charmat Brut displays a pale yellow color with a light green tinge. The nose exhibits an expressive liveliness, with fruity nuances and a floral background. In the mouth, it is light and elegant, with delicate fine bubbles and a clean well-balanced aftertaste. It is recommended to serve Opera Prima chilled, between 4-6 °C. This sparkling wine is made from Airén and Macabeo grape varieties and is a beautiful reflection of a balanced Charmat. Secondary fermentation in bulk tanks and bottling under pressure produces smaller, longer-lasting bubbles. This process is used widely around the world to produce light, delicate, drink-now sparkling wines.

J.G. Carrión

Castillo de Covanegra Reserva 5 years 2011

Castillo de Covanegra is a blend of the local Monastrell grape and a small amount of Tempranillo grown amongst the wide, sun-drenched valleys of Jumilla. Specially selected ancient bush vines have produced a concentrated wine, full of ripe fruit aromas and excellent structure for the price. Five years of aging and careful use of oak has added indulgent flavours of vanilla and sweet spices on the palate, leading to a rich and smooth finish. Enjoy this Reserva wine with roast meats and cheeses.

Bodegas Muga Rosado 2015

The Rose shows a very light, bright colour – mainly pale orange-tinged salmon pink. In this harvest very fresh, tart fruit aromas return, dominating the whole sensorial profile of the wine. On the nose you mainly find the citrus and green apple aromas which are present throughout the wine's passage through the mouth; in the aftertaste, the olfactory nuances are transformed into something finer and more complex, where you can discover, along with those noted previously, hints of apricot and faint reminders of pastries. On the palate it is really attractive since, although the sharp fruit still dominates, the overall taste is sweetened by elegant, well-integrated fine lees. This is a wine with a long finish, combining sweetness, freshness and acidity.

Bodegas Naia Naia Verdejo 2013

91 Points — Vinous September 2014

Light yellow-gold. Lemon zest, fresh fig, smoky minerals and white flowers on the highly perfumed nose. Brisk, tactile and focused, boasting excellent energy to its flavors of fresh citrus fruits, pear, pineapple and sweet butter. Finishes taut, fresh and long, with resonating mineral and floral notes.

Grandes Vino y Vinedos Monasterio Crianza Magnums 2008

The 2008 Crianza is a blend of 70% Garnacha, 20% Tempranillo, and 10% Syrah aged for 6 months in French and American oak and an additional 18 months in bottle prior to release. Notions of smoke, game, violets, blackberry, and blueberry set the stage for a smooth, elegant offering in which the oak adds a touch of complexity. This superb value is impeccably balanced and lengthy and will deliver enjoyment over the next 4-5 years.

Marques de Gelida Celler Brut Exclusive Cava 2008

90 Points — Wine Advocate #203 Oct 2012

"Coming from slightly higher altitude vineyards, it is a selection of some of the better lots. It is aged in bottle three and a half years prior to being released. This frothy effort exhibits more brioche and buttered citrus notes, light to medium body, and a clean/pure style. Again, it is a super value in sparkling white wine."

Bodegas Muga Barrel Fermented Blanco 2015

The Muga Blanco shows a greenish, straw yellow colour on appearance with bright and clear edges. On the nose thefruits, mainly citrus and green apple, are sweetened by pastry aromas from the fine lees and spices from the Nevers oak.

On the palate, the attack is at the same time mineral and silky, underpinned by stimulating malic acid nuances.

Bodegas Breca
Breca 2011

91 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Oct 2013

(made from garnacha vines that were reportedly planted between 1925 and 1945; aged for 21 months in small French oak): Opaque ruby. Ripe blackberry and boysenberry aromas are complemented by deeper-pitched notes of mocha and licorice. At once rich and lively, offering vibrant dark fruit preserve flavors and a kick of peppery spices. Smooth, seamless and sweet on the very persistent finish, which leaves notes of blueberry and espresso behind.

Botani 2014

90 Points — Robert Parker (Nov 2013)

"The dry 2012 Botani, made from 100% Moscatel de Alexandria, has been adored by everyone I've served it to. Prior to this project, no one had used these grapes except for sweet wines. However, this is one of the most seductive and amazingly perfumed, flowery, dry whites in the world. Coming from decomposed slate and quartz soils of volcanic origin, this 2012 exhibits a sumptuous perfume of spring flowers, exotic fruits such as mango, pineapple, peach and apricot, and hits the palate with gorgeous fruit. While there may be a touch of residual sugar, it is not noticeable."

Teso la Monja Romanico 2012

92 Points — eRobertParker.com , Nov 2014

The 2012 Romanico (1,500 cases produced) is made from 100% Tinta de Toro (the local name for Tempranillo), and is aged for six months in a combination of new and used French oak. Malolactic is done in oak, and the result is full-bodied, opaque purple-colored wine with superb richness as well as lots of blackberry, charcoal and cassis intermixed with licorice, new saddle leather, pepper and bouquet garni. This nearly viscous red should drink beautifully for 7-10 years.

Jorge Ordóñez Tarima Hill 2011

91 Points — eRobertParker.com #1113 Nov 2013

The 2011 Tarima Hill is made from old vine Mourvedre grown at a high elevation of 2,000-2,500 feet. Aged 20 months in French oak, its sensational inky/purple color is followed by a sweet bouquet of acacia flowers, blueberry liqueur, blackberries and graphite, and a full-bodied, rich mouthfeel. This sensational red wine could easily sell for three to five times the price with no complaints. It should age easily for another 5-6 years.

Jorge Ordóñez Volver 2011

91 Points — eRobertParker.com #1113 Nov 2013

From holdings in La Mancha, the 2011 Volver (100% Tempranillo that spent 18 months in new French oak prior to being bottled unfiltered) is a 2,000-case cuvee that comes from a single vineyard. Abundant notes of acacia flowers intermixed with black currants and blackberries are offered in a flavorful, medium-bodied, slightly spicy format. A nicely textured mouth feel, sweet tannin and a long finish suggest this stunning value will drink well for 3-4 years. Wines such as this normally sell for $30-$50 a bottle, but this beauty is priced just over $16.

Jorge Ordonez
Triton Toro 2012

90 Points — eRobertParker.com #Special Interim Issue Report, Nov 2014

"From Spain's most historic region for Tempranillo, having been first planted in the 14th century, the 2012 Triton Tinta de Toro is 100% Tinta de Toro (the local name for Tempranillo) planted at a 2,400 foot elevation. These moderately old parcels, planted in 1956 and 1963, have yielded .81 tons of fruit per acre, which is virtually nothing. Aged 18 months in 1- to 3-year-old Burgundy and Bordeaux barrels, this outstanding 2012 boasts a deep purple color along with notes of charcoal, graphite, blueberries and blackberries, a medium to full-bodied mouthfeel, a voluptuous texture, and a seductive style. It can be drunk early in life or cellared for 5-7 years."

Zerran 2011

92 Points — Wine Advocate #203 Oct 2012

Even more so is the 2011 Zerran, which ratchets up the level of concentration and ripe fruit. It reveals abundant kirsch, lavender, black raspberry and dusty, loamy, earthy scents intermixed with notions of spring flowers and blackberries. There is not any oak evident in this dense effort. Its completeness and overall equilibrium are impressive, and this great value should drink well for 5-6 years, possibly longer. (There is no track record for these wines in terms of aging.)

Bodegas Muga
Cava Conde de Haro

The grape varieties used are Viura (90%) and Malvasía (10%). Only the must drawn from the lightest pressing is used to make this cava. The nose is dominated by tangy fruit and floral aromas. Honeyed yet fresh in the mouth, thanks to its significant acidity. The combination of fruit, acidity and fine lees results in a surprising sensation of richness. The fruity notes return in the aftertaste, with predominant spices.

Bodegas Muga Muga Reserva 2012

91+ Points — Luis Gutierrez, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015

The 2011 Reserva is mostly Tempranillo complemented with some 20% Garnacha, 10% Graciano and 5% Mazuelo. There are no stainless-steel vats at Muga, so everything is fermented in oak vats and this wine is then aged for one year in new French oak barrels and a further year in used ones (three to six years old), fined with egg white and bottled. It is a Rioja that mixes the traditional and modern character with ripe fruit and contains oak aromas that are quite spicy and have some toast and smoke that should integrate with a bit of time in bottle. The palate is medium-bodied, has clean flavors that are balanced with sweet tannins. This is easy to drink, pleasant but not banal, and delivers a lot for its price. An impressive half-million bottles are produced of this wine, which is sold as Crianza in Spain and as Reserva in the rest of the world. Year after year, one of the most reliable and affordable Reservas.

Bodegas José Pariente Barrel Fermented Verdejo 2011

Bright and golden yellow to the eye, it has an intense, complex nose, its aromas spicy, slightly smoky, with ripe fruit and a hint of wood. There are also notes of exotic fruits and minerals. In the mouth it is voluminous, unctuous and very elegant. Powerful, with a good acidity that ensures a long and lively passage. It presents a great balance between fruit and wood. Everything that is perceived in the nose appears again in the mouth.

The fermentation was in French oak barrels, both new and one year old, from various cooperers. This was followed by some seven months of batonnage, with the wine in constant contact with its lees. It was then decanted into stainless steel tanks, where it remained for five months, before being bottled after clarification and stabilization.

Sierra Cantabria Reserva 2006

91 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar,
Nov/Dec 10

(20% new French and American barriques) Bright ruby. Racy, floral-accented aromas of red berries, minerals and spices, with a strong note of white pepper. Sweet, seamless raspberry, strawberry and spice flavors display very good intensity and a distinct juicy quality that's reminiscent of pinot noir. Finishes with silky, harmonious tannins and good cut, repeating the spicy notes.

Teso la Monja Almirez 2013

92+ Points — eRobertParker.com #Interim - November 2015

Even more powerful and rich is the 2013 Almirez, an opaque purple wine made from 100% Tinta de Toro from vineyards planted at 2,300 feet (the highest in all of Toro). The wine has a fabulous opaque purple color, notes of blackberry, blueberry and cassis, licorice, graphite and truffle. Deep, rich, full-bodied and powerful with moderate tannin, this wine was aged 12 months in about 30% new French oak. Drink it over the next decade.

San Vicente San Vicente 2007

92 Points — Wine Advocate

The 2007 San Vicente is purple/black in color. It offers up a promising nose of smoke, spice box, lavender, and blackberry. Dense, rich, and concentrated on the palate, it is likely to evolve for 4-6 years and drink well through 2028. Señorio de San Vicente is one of several outstanding estates owned and operated by the Eguren family. The wine is made from 100% Tempranillo Peludo known for its tiny berries and exceptional aromatics. The grapes are sourced from a single vineyard and typically aged for 20 months in new, mostly French oak before bottling without filtration.

Bodegas Muga Prado Enea Gran Reserva 2006

96 Points — eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015

The 2006 Prado Enea is a phenomenal bottle of traditional Rioja at its best. A blend of 70% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha and the remaining 10% Mazuelo and Graciano aged for a long time in oak and bottled before release. This is a practice quite common from yesteryear, but that is a true rarity today. The grapes are sourced from higher-altitude terraced plots where the climate is cooler and drier and the soils are rich in clay. This is a wine that is not automatically produced every year. The wine spends its élevage in oak containers of different size, origin and age for no less than three years. The nose is intoxicating with a superb mixture of tertiary and more primary aromas like old furniture, cloves, cracked pepper, incense and cigar ash plus cherries in liqueur (that Garnacha!). This wine feels younger than it is, and seems to be aging at a glacial pace. With the stuffing and balance it has this should make very old bones, and drink greatly throughout its life. Superb! At this quality level the price seems like a bargain.

Sierra Cantabria Victorino 2008

92 Points — The Wine Advocate

The 2008 Victorino went through malolactic in new French oak followed by 18 months of aging in new barrels. Dense purple in color, it displays an already complex bouquet of Asian spices, sandalwood, leather, balsamic, and brooding black fruits. Dense and backward on the palate but well-balanced, it mandates a minimum of 5-7 years of cellaring. It will provide prime drinking from 2017 to 2028.

Sierra Cantabria El Puntido 2003

94 Points — The Wine Advocate

The 2003 El Puntido is similarly styled but built more for the long haul than the 2002. ## Sierra Cantabria Amancio 2008

95 Points — Wine Advocate #210 December 2013

The 2008 Amancio (a wine named after the great-grandfather of the current Eguren generation) is 100% Tempranillo from a rocky 16.4-hectare vineyard in San Vicente de la Sonsierra called La Veguilla, which was planted in 1975. The bunches are destemmed by hand and the grapes ferment with their own yeast in 10-hectoliter French oak vats where they are foot-trodden twice a day during the first six days. The wine ages for 24 months in French and American oak barrels and is racked every four months. 2008 is a harvest that combines power with freshness, and the nose of the wine is extremely subtle with great harmony and purity. The aromas combine soil notes with fine spices and red and black fruit, but it's definitively more soil-driven than fruit-driven. The palate is medium to full-bodied, with subtle flavors, great balance and elegance. If I had to find one word to define this wine it would be pure. A very complex Atlantic Rioja that will live a long life. 4,000 bottles produced. Drink 2015-2030.

Bodegas Toro Albalá Don Px 2012

89 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #216, December 2014

A young, sweet, single-vintage Pedro Ximénez, the 2012 Don PX, was aged in stainless steel vats for two years and was bottled with 450 grams of residual sugar and 17% alcohol. This is extremely dense and sweet, exuberant with aromas of sugar cane, dates and golden raisins and an extremely sweet, dense palate with flavors of raisins and lowish acidity. I prefer these young wines in their initial, more exuberant phase but once they lose their youthful character they will keep in bottle forever given the high alcohol and sugar.

Bodegas Toro Albalá
Don Px Selección 1962

95 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #208, August 2013

"The 1962 Don PX Reserva Especial is pitch black, dense as (used) motor oil, medicinal and balsamic, with a grassy nose of licorice, black olives, roasted coffee, smoke and ash, very intense and expressive in the palate, spicy (nutmeg) with incredible length, perhaps not as integrated as the 49 and 46. Bodegas Toro Albalá
Don Px Selección 1949

97 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #208, August 2013

"The 1949 Don PX Selección differs from the other old wines from the winery as it is less dark, it even has a (very dark) translucent tone compared with the others, maybe because it has 2% more alcohol. It feels incredibly elegant and balanced, fresher in comparison than the beasts from 1962 and 1946, medicinal, full of spicy notes of cinnamon, cloves, a touch of ash, and the smell of an antique shop. The palate is fluid, sweet and fresh. Putting a drinking window to these wines feels a bit silly. You should drink it whenever you have the occasion."

Bodegas Toro Albalá
Don Px Convento Selección 1946

100 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #208, August 2013

"An extreme wine, my first descriptor was ultra-mega-super concentrated. It is unbelievably powerful, both in the nose and the palate, full of umami, with sweet cinnamon, Christmas cake, camphor, petrol, lemongrass, Belgian chocolate and butter. Incredibly complex and rich, sweet, balanced and smooth in the palate, it is both very sweet and somehow salty, and with time it develops a black olive note. It combines the texture of the 1962 and the elegance of the 1949. It is as decadent as it gets. A real tour de force sweet wine."

Rock and a Hard Place Grenache 2012

90 Points — Wine Advocate #214, Aug 2014

Made from 100% Grenache, the 2012 Grenache Rock and a Hard Place is a smoking value that delivers the goods. Kirsch, underbrush, licorice and sweet spice soar from the glass, and this forward, sexy effort has a great texture, no hard edges and a hard-to-resist personality. Drink it over the coming 3-4 years.

Head Honcho Syrah 2011

90+ Points — Wine Advocate #214, Aug 2014

The 2011 Head Honcho is a blend of 100% Syrah that was aged 22 months in 40% new French oak. It's another serious wine from McPrice that offers beautiful purity in its black raspberry, cracked pepper corns, sappy herb and charcoal styled bouquet. Medium to full-bodied, structured and with solid mid-palate depth, give this another year in the cellar and drink it through 2021.

Daucourt Moulin Vodka

The Reviews

World's Highest Rated Vodka 97 Points

Beverage Testing Institute

"Clear. Attractive aromas suggest bison grass, whipped cream, pear, anise cookie, and powdered sugar with a satiny, dry-yet-fruity medium-to-full body and a intricate interplay of peppery and confectionary spice, sweet wheat pastry, and mineral notes. A world-class vodka that is fantastically expressive, elegant, and flavorful. An ideal vodka for sipping neat, on the rocks, or in martinis."

Bumbu Rum Co.

Bumbu Rum

Bumbu is made at a historic Barbadian distillery founded in 1893 and has continuously operated for more than 120 years. The rum is distilled using two continuous stills and aged up to 15 years in grade-A, once-used Kentucky bourbon barrels. The yeast used during fermentation is a distillery secret that dates back as far as 1840, when some of our original iron pot stills were cast. At Bumbu Rum Company, we handcraft our rums from a blend of sugarcane selected from eight countries throughout the West Indies and South America to bring exceptional balance and smoothness, without sacrificing richness and complexity that makes our Barbados distillery's rum the world's best – although we're a little biased!

Obata Shuzo Manotsuru “Bulzai” Ginjo

The Reviews

92 Points

Wilfred Wong Bevmo!

Best Buy

Beverage Testing Institute, June 14, 2013

Bulzai is a Nama-chozo sake, which means it is left un-pasteurized until the bottling stage; this adds zestiness to the mouthfeel and preserves of the flavours normally lost to the full pasteurization process. Refreshing aromas of bananas and tropical fruit. The finish offers hints of licorice and white pepper over stonedriven mineral notes. Best served chilled. Bulzai “hits the mark” with a wide range of appetizers and fish dishes.

Borg Brugghús Leifur Nordic Saison

Leifur is named after the Icelandic explorer Leifur (the Lucky) Eiríksson, the first European to discover North America – almost 500 years before Christopher Columbus. Leifur landed in a luscious place with plentiful stores of salmon, vines and grapes, and so named the land Vinland (Wineland). Leifur is brewed with organic arctic thyme and heather which, together with the Belgium yeast, gives the beer a dry, grassy taste and a delicately balanced aroma of citrus and pepper.

Beer Advocate

"Garún is named for the strong and brave heroine of one of Iceland's most popular folktales "The deacon of Dark River (Myrká)." A tale of ghosts, undying love, and life triumphing over death told against the backdrop of elements essential to Iceland's character: ice, snow, and flooding waters whirling dark and mysterious. The same elements that inspire this rich, intense, bold and swirlingly varied Icelandic stout. Garún is a dark aura of intense richness and haunting aroma with notes of chocolate, licorice and coffee. Skál!"

Roundhouse Kick Imperial Stout

96 Points ratebeer

German, Belgian, and British Malts in massive amounts have joined forces to form this award-winning beast of a black malt bomb! A big full bodied beer that features an onslaught of espresso, dark chocolate, toffee, caramel and hints of herbs and licorice from the roast and chocolate malts. Mild fruit and alcohol notes bring up the rear. Aggressive usage of hops provides flanking for the sweetness from the specialty malts. Malts for this beer were hand selected after lengthy searches for the exact flavors that are found in the aroma profile. Only the best malts from three different countries make it into this beer. While other beers may push the limits of the brew house, Roundhouse Kick plows right through them!!! The CREW enjoys Roundhouse Kick with smoked meats and big sweet chocolate desserts.

Hops: Columbus, Tradition

Malt: Pilsner Malt, Chocolate Malt, Crystal Malt, Roasted Malts

93 Points (Exceptional)

92 Points — Wine Enthusiast Magazine, March 2011

The Dieci is a barley wine with intense and alcoholic taste, produced with no spices and with natural yeast to enhance its malted character and complexity resulting from a long boiling process in the cooking room. Its appearance is very dark with creamy thin froth, a scent that anticipates its taste of caramel and liquorice. Its stout structure and rich hops allow for this amazing barley wine to improve with age for years.
