Domaine Lafage Miraflops Rose 2015

90 Points — Wine Advocate April 2016

The 2015 Cotes du Roussillon Miraflops Rose offers lots of framboise, strawberry and rose petal characteristics in medium-bodied, juicy, gorgeously quaffable style. This is prime hot summer day stuff that will hit the spot over the coming six months.

I've raved time and time again about the quality - and value - coming from Domaine Lafage's Jean-Marc Lafage. A large estate that pulls from vines in the Agly Valley, the Aspres region, and vines around the estate and close the Mediterranean Sea, they've just completed work on a new, state of the art winery and cellar. I can only imagine the quality will continue to soar at this estate.

92-93 Points — Wine Advocate, April 2016

The 2015 Cotes du Roussillon Centenaire is a racy, medium-bodied blend of mostly Grenache Blanc (and Gris), with 20% Roussanne. Crushed rocks, mint, lime and citrus blossom are some of the nuances here, and it hits the palate with medium-bodied richness, beautiful purity of fruit and a clean, dry finish. It's certainly an outstanding white to enjoy over the coming 2-3 years.

I've raved time and time again about the quality - and value - coming from Domaine Lafage's Jean-Marc Lafage. A large estate that pulls from vines in the Agly Valley, the Aspres region, and vines around the estate and close the Mediterranean Sea, they've just completed work on a new, state of the art winery and cellar. I can only imagine the quality will continue to soar at this estate.

Chateau Saint Roch Cheimeres 2013

93 Points — Wine Advocate October 2014

A joint venture between Jean-Marc Lafage and Eric Solomon, the 2013 Cotes du Roussillon Chimères is just another example of the brilliance of the 2013 vintage in the Roussillon. Coming all from the schist soils of Maury and a blend of 60% Grenache, 30% Syrah and 10% Carignan that spent 8-12 months in 500-liter barrels and concrete, it possesses a deep purple color to go with savory notes of kirsch and assorted darker berry fruits, pepper, truffle and damp earth. Full-bodied, thrillingly textured and with incredible purity of fruit, this knockout effort stays lively and elegant, with fine tannin, terrific length and no hard edges. It will knock your socks off over the coming 4-6 years.

These are brilliant new releases from Chateau Saint Roch, which was recently purchased by Jean-Marc Lafage (and is a joint venture with importer Eric Solomon). Located in the Cabirou region of Maury, in the Roussillon, which was famous for making fortified wines in the past, it consists of mostly schist and granite soils, and has a slew of old-vine Carignan and Grenache. The wines are jaw-dropping good. In addition, they're ridiculously under-priced given their quality.

Cuvee Nicolas 2012

93 Points — Jeb Dunnuck, eRobertParker.com #212, Apr 2014

"The 2012 Cotes Catalanes Cuvee Nicolas is an off-the-hook value. Named after Jean-Marc's son and made from 100% Grenache from higher elevation sites in the Aspres region, fermented with 20% stems and aged half in demi-muid, it offers layers of kirsch, underbrush, licorice and serious floral notes in its medium to full-bodied, elegant and seamless profile. Getting a big "wow" in the notes and showing fine tannin and serious length, it should be snatched up by savvy readers and consumed over the coming 3-4 years."

Bastide Miraflors 2013

93 Points — Robert Parker, Wine Advocate #213, Jun 2014

"I have loved the wines from Domaine Lafage in the past, and this 2013 Bastide Miraflors Cotes Catalanes is one of the greatest red wine values I have tasted in the last year or so. A custom cuvee put together by Eric Solomon and Jean-Marc Lafage, it is a blend of 70% Syrah and 30% Grenache that spent one year in 80% concrete tank (Grenache) and 500-liter demi-muids (Syrah). From a Roussillon vineyard dominated by gallets roules that resembles many Chateauneuf du Pape vineyards, the wine undergoes a long maceration of six weeks. The result is an inky/blue/purple-colored wine offering a big, sweet bouquet of blueberries, blackberries, acacia flowers, pepper and spice. This full-bodied, opulent, majestic dry red unleashes tremendous ripeness, richness and intensity. One would normally think such a superb, remarkable wine would cost over $50 a bottle, but this beauty is available for an astonishing $14 a bottle. You'll have to taste it to believe it! It should drink well for 2-5 years."

Tessellae Old Vine 2013

94 Points — eRobertParker.com #215, Oct 2014

Another incredible wine that's shockingly good for the price, the 2013 Tessellae Old Vines checks in as a blend of 40% Grenache, 40% Syrah and 20% Mourvedre that was aged all in concrete tank. It offers brilliant notes of black cherries, blueberry, licorice, clove and spring flowers in its medium to full-bodied, gorgeously pure profile. Showing more and more finesse and elegance with time in the glass, as well as classic Roussillon minerality on the finish, it has loads of fruit and texture yet is never heavy, cumbersome or cloying. It's hard to believe you can get this quality for the price, but the consumer is the big winner here. Enjoy this rock star effort over the coming 4-5 years, although I wouldn't be surprised to see it evolve for longer.

Clos du Mont Olivet

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Clos du Mont Olivet 2010

90-92 Points — Robert Parker, Wine Advocate

The 2010 Châteauneuf du Pape Tradition exhibits a deep ruby/purple color, silky tannins, good acidity, impressive precision as well as aromatic uplift. Similar to, but less evolved than the 2009, with deeper, more concentrated fruit, it should drink well for 10-15 years.

The Sabon family that owns Clos du Mont Olivet was one of the first to estate bottle Châteauneuf du Pape over 80 years ago. This is a highly respected source of traditional wines that age wonderfully. The family's habit of bottling as they sold the wine has been abandoned, and the result is far more consistent offerings than existed 15 or 20 years ago. The 2009s are beautiful wines, but the 2010s will ultimately eclipse them. Both vintages merit serious interest.

Chateau Saint Roch

Kerbuccio 2013

95 Points — Wine Advocate October 2014

One of the most incredible values I've tasted in a long, long time, the jaw-dropping good 2013 Kerbuccio Maury Sec (this is a new appellation dedicated to dry wines from Maury) is 40% Syrah, 30% Mourvedre and 30% Grenache, all from the black schist soils of Maury, that spent eight months in concrete tank prior to being bottled unfiltered. Its inky purple color is followed by fabulous aromas and flavors of creme de cassis, violets, crushed rocks and licorice. Full-bodied, seamless and incredibly textured, all while staying fresh and pure, it's an off-the-charts Roussillon that will drink well for 5-8 years, possibly longer.

These are brilliant new releases from Chateau Saint Roch, which was recently purchased by Jean-Marc Lafage (and is a joint venture with importer Eric Solomon). Located in the Cabirou region of Maury, in the Roussillon, which was famous for making fortified wines in the past, it consists of mostly schist and granite soils, and has a slew of old-vine Carignan and Grenache. Cuvée Prestige 2009

"The monumental 2009 Chateauneuf du Pape Cuvee Prestige is a creative blend of 60% Grenache, 15% Syrah, 10% Mourvedre, and the rest grapes such as Vaccarese, Muscardin, Cinsault, Terret Noir and Counoise. Most of the fruit is aged in foudre, with the Syrah and Mourvedre components aged in new oak. The fabulous 2009 offers an opaque purple color along with a gorgeous nose of charcoal, burning embers, black currants, soy, Asian plum sauce, blackberries and kirsch. The wine's complexity is nearly off the charts. Moreover, once it hits the palate, the high glycerin, silky tannins, low acidity and luxurious concentration provide a compelling drinking experience. The result: Armand de Brignac topped the list, ranking officially as the #1 champagne in the world.

"We witnessed in our glasses a fine, smooth and creamy champagne with underlying power and great mineral freshness. Classic, restrained and energetic in style, it has everything a truly great champagne can offer. Its accentuated fruit-forwardness is what makes it so irresistibly palatable today. ## La Mozza I Perazzi 2013

91 Points — Vinous October 2015

The 2013 Morellino di Scansano I Perazzi is gorgeous. Sweet floral notes meld into a core of black cherry, hard candy, lavender, mint and sage. In this vintage, the Perazzi has a bit more energy and acidity than is the norm, which perks up the flavors and balances some of the natural richness of this site. The 2013 is quite possibly the most refined Morellino from La Mozza yet.

La Mozza Aragone 2010

92+ Points — Vinous October 2015

A huge, powerful wine, the 2010 Aragone hits the palate with serious intensity. The flavors are dark, bold and intense, with important contributions from Alicante, Syrah and Carignan that add complexity to the Sangiovese. The 2010 could use another year or two to come together more fully, but I imagine it will always remain a bit burly. Hints of smoke, game, iron, incense and tobacco add layers of nuance to a decidedly virile, imposing Maremma red that begs to be served at the dinner table.

Tenuta Campo al Mare Campo al Mare Bolgheri D.O.C 2013

89 Points — Wine Advocate October 2015

Campo al Mare's 2013 Bolgheri Rosso opens to spicy notes that are intense and exotic in personality. The quality of fruit is thick and ripe with dark tones of blackberry and dried cherry. This blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot has a sweet and soft spot in the mouth but it also offers bright intensity, lushness and pulpy fruit. The wine is delicious to drink but that fullness of fruit gives it a one-dimensional approach.

Castelforte Amarone is made from dried Corvina and Rondinella grapes. A long, slow fermentation and minimum 18 month aging in large oak give this dry, full-bodied red wine a deep garnet red color, a complex bouquet of cinnamon, cherry jam and walnut and a palate of ripe black cherry fruit with notes of vanilla and coffee on the finish. Bright violet color. High-pitched aromas of dark berries and cherry are complicated by suggestions of lavender and white pepper. Tarima 2012

90 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Sep/Oct 13

(made from ungrafted vines ranging from 35 to 40 years of age; all stainless steel): Bright purple. Powerful aromas of blueberry, blackberry, violet and Indian spices. Displays vibrant flavors of smoky dark berries, bitter cherry and candied flowers, with a peppery overtone. The sweet, fruit-driven finish repeats the smoky note and hangs on tenaciously. I'd drink this wine young for its extroverted fruit character. To call it a value is an understatement.

90 Points — Josh Raynolds, Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Nov/Dec 10

($13; includes 8% garnacha; raised in demi-muids and barriques ranging from new to three years old) Bright violet. Spicy, floral-accented aromas of black raspberry, sassafras, dried flowers and allspice, enhanced by a subtle mineral overtone. Lively and precise, with sweet red and dark berry flavors and a nervy mineral spine. Shows very good energy on the finish, leaving tangy red fruit and spice notes. This is quite unlike most wines from Jumilla, which can show more richness than balance. Some of these vines date back to 1872.

Bodegas Muga Rosado 2015

The Rose shows a very light, bright colour – mainly pale orange-tinged salmon pink. In this harvest very fresh, tart fruit aromas return, dominating the whole sensorial profile of the wine. On the nose you mainly find the citrus and green apple aromas which are present throughout the wine's passage through the mouth; in the aftertaste, the olfactory nuances are transformed into something finer and more complex, where you can discover, along with those noted previously, hints of apricot and faint reminders of pastries. On the palate it is really attractive since, although the sharp fruit still dominates, the overall taste is sweetened by elegant, well-integrated fine lees. This is a wine with a long finish, combining sweetness, freshness and acidity.

CHRISTOPHER STEWART WINE & SPIRITS | 69

Jorge Ordonez
Botani 2011

91 Points — Stephen Tanzer's, International Wine Cellar, Sep 12

"(100% moscatel de Alexandria; no oak): Greenish straw. Intense aromas of orange zest, pineapple, peach and honey on the nose, complicated by notes of shiso leaf and white flowers. Broad, dry and sharply focused, with very good intensity to its flavors of candied citrus and pit fruits, honey and melon. Very smooth on the finish, which leaves notes of sweet citrus fruits and flowers behind. This wine would be superb with any number of Asian dishes."

Triton Toro 2012

90 Points — eRobertParker.com #Special Interim Issue Report, Nov 2014

"From Spain's most historic region for Tempranillo, having been first planted in the 14th century, the 2012 Triton Tinta de Toro is 100% Tinta de Toro (the local name for Tempranillo) planted at a 2,400 foot elevation. These moderately old parcels, planted in 1956 and 1963, have yielded .81 tons of fruit per acre, which is virtually nothing. Aged 18 months in 1- to 3-year-old Burgundy and Bordeaux barrels, this outstanding 2012 boasts a deep purple color along with notes of charcoal, graphite, blueberries and blackberries, a medium to full-bodied mouthfeel, a voluptuous texture, and a seductive style. It can be drunk early in life or cellared for 5-7 years."

Tarima Hill 2011

91 Points — eRobertParker.com #1113 Nov 2013

The 2011 Tarima Hill is made from old vine Mourvedre grown at a high elevation of 2,000-2,500 feet. Aged 20 months in French oak, its sensational inky/purple color is followed by a sweet bouquet of acacia flowers, blueberry liqueur, blackberries and graphite, and a full-bodied, rich mouthfeel. This sensational red wine could easily sell for three to five times the price with no complaints. It should age easily for another 5-6 years.

Bodegas Volver Single Vineyard Tempranillo 2012

91 Points — Vinous, Sept 2014

(all tempranillo; aged in new French oak for 18 months): Dark purple. Expressive dark berry preserve, vanilla and floral pastille aromas are lifted by a subtle peppery nuance. Lush and open-knit, offering intense blueberry and cherry-vanilla flavors that tighten up with air. Finishes on a juicy note, with excellent length, silky tannins and an echo of blue fruits.

Jorge Ordóñez Zerran 2011

92 Points — Wine Advocate #203 Oct 2012

Even more so is the 2011 Zerran, which ratchets up the level of concentration and ripe fruit. It reveals abundant kirsch, lavender, black raspberry and dusty, loamy, earthy scents intermixed with notions of spring flowers and blackberries. There is not any oak evident in this dense effort. Its completeness and overall equilibrium are impressive, and this great value should drink well for 5-6 years, possibly longer. (There is no track record for these wines in terms of aging.)

Bodegas Muga
Cava Conde de Haro

The grape varieties used are Viura (90%) and Malvasía (10%). Only the must drawn from the lightest pressing is used to make this cava. The nose is dominated by tangy fruit and floral aromas. Honeyed yet fresh in the mouth, thanks to its significant acidity. The combination of fruit, acidity and fine lees results in a surprising sensation of richness. The fruity notes return in the aftertaste, with predominant spices.

91 Points — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Oct 2013

(made from garnacha vines that were reportedly planted between 1925 and 1945; aged for 21 months in small French oak): Opaque ruby. Ripe blackberry and boysenberry aromas are complemented by deeper-pitched notes of mocha and licorice. At once rich and lively, offering vibrant dark fruit preserve flavors and a kick of peppery spices. Smooth, seamless and sweet on the very persistent finish, which leaves notes of blueberry and espresso behind.

Bodegas Muga
Muga Reserva 2012

Previous Vintage

91+ Points — Luis Gutierrez, eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015

The 2011 Reserva is mostly Tempranillo complemented with some 20% Garnacha, 10% Graciano and 5% Mazuelo. There are no stainless-steel vats at Muga, so everything is fermented in oak vats and this wine is then aged for one year in new French oak barrels and a further year in used ones (three to six years old), fined with egg white and bottled. It is a Rioja that mixes the traditional and modern character with ripe fruit and contains oak aromas that are quite spicy and have some toast and smoke that should integrate with a bit of time in bottle. The palate is medium-bodied, has clean flavors that are balanced with sweet tannins. This is easy to drink, pleasant but not banal, and delivers a lot for its price. An impressive half-million bottles are produced of this wine, which is sold as Crianza in Spain and as Reserva in the rest of the world.

Sexy, spice-accented dark berry preserve and incense aromas show very good energy and hints of violet and dark chocolate. Sappy, incisive blackberry and bitter cherry flavors coat the palate, picking up a smoky nuance with air. At once rich and lively, finishing with strong thrust and supple tannins. ## Teso La Monja Almirez 2012

The 2012 Almirez (a 1,000-case cuvée of 100% Tinta de Toro) was aged 14 months in French oak. This sensational wine comes from vines planted between 1949 and 1999. Yields were a conservative 1.8 tons of fruit per acre. An inky/purple color is followed by aromas of camphor, ground pepper, blackberries and cassis. This full-bodied, Northern Rhône Valley-like Spanish red exhibits meaty/lard notes, terrific density and purity, and a finish that lasts nearly 40 seconds. It should drink nicely for a decade or more.

Bodegas Muga
Prado Enea Gran Reserva 2006

96 Points — eRobertParker.com #218, Apr 2015

The 2006 Prado Enea is a phenomenal bottle of traditional Rioja at its best. A blend of 70% Tempranillo, 20% Garnacha and the remaining 10% Mazuelo and Graciano aged for a long time in oak and bottled before release. This is a practice quite common from yesteryear, but that is a true rarity today. The grapes are sourced from higher-altitude terraced plots where the climate is cooler and drier and the soils are rich in clay. This is a wine that is not automatically produced every year. The wine spends its élevage in oak containers of different size, origin and age for no less than three years. The nose is intoxicating with a superb mixture of tertiary and more primary aromas like old furniture, cloves, cracked pepper, incense and cigar ash plus cherries in liqueur (that Garnacha!). This wine feels younger than it is, and seems to be aging at a glacial pace. With the stuffing and balance it has this should make very old bones, and drink greatly throughout its life. Superb! At this quality level the price seems like a bargain.

CHRISTOPHER STEWART WINE & SPIRITS | 75

Sierra Cantabria San Vicente 2000

92 Points — Stephen Tanzer's, International Wine Cellar, Jul/Aug 03

(100% tempranillo peluda from a single vineyard) Saturated ruby-red. Spicy, smoky aromas of blackcurrant, ripe tomato, graphite and licorice. Fat, sweet and truffley, with a creamy old-viney flavor - or is this simply the superconcentration that comes from this small-berried tempranillo clone? An elegant, silky, licorice-inflected wine with great individuality. The sweetness builds as the wine opens in the glass. Finishes very long and rich, with complex suggestions of minerals, truffle and smoke.

"The 2010 Victorino is tightly wound on the nose with black cherries, iodine and violets, almost Margaux-like in character. The palate is medium-bodied and already offers good fruit intensity, offering cassis, tart cherries and a touch of blueberry. It shows good weight in the mouth with a lifted, spicy finish that has a touch of welcome volatility lending it edginess and tension." Drink 2015-2025.

Sierra Cantabria Amancio 2008

95 Points — Wine Advocate #210 December 2013

The 2008 Amancio (a wine named after the great-grandfather of the current Eguren generation) is 100% Tempranillo from a rocky 16.4-hectare vineyard in San Vicente de la Sonsierra called La Veguilla, which was planted in 1975. The bunches are destemmed by hand and the grapes ferment with their own yeast in 10-hectoliter French oak vats where they are foot-trodden twice a day during the first six days. The wine ages for 24 months in French and American oak barrels and is racked every four months. 2008 is a harvest that combines power with freshness, and the nose of the wine is extremely subtle with great harmony and purity. The aromas combine soil notes with fine spices and red and black fruit, but it's definitively more soil-driven than fruit-driven. The palate is medium to full-bodied, with subtle flavors, great balance and elegance. If I had to find one word to define this wine it would be pure. A very complex Atlantic Rioja that will live a long life. 4,000 bottles produced. Drink 2015-2030.

Bodegas Toro Albalá
Don Px 2012

89 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #216, December 2014

A young, sweet, single-vintage Pedro Ximénez, the 2012 Don PX, was aged in stainless steel vats for two years and was bottled with 450 grams of residual sugar and 17% alcohol. This is extremely dense and sweet, exuberant with aromas of sugar cane, dates and golden raisins and an extremely sweet, dense palate with flavors of raisins and lowish acidity. I prefer these young wines in their initial, more exuberant phase but once they lose their youthful character they will keep in bottle forever given the high alcohol and sugar.

Bodegas Toro Albalá Don Px Selección 1949

97 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #208, August 2013

"The 1949 Don PX Selección differs from the other old wines from the winery as it is less dark, it even has a (very dark) translucent tone compared with the others, maybe because it has 2% more alcohol. It feels incredibly elegant and balanced, fresher in comparison than the beasts from 1962 and 1946, medicinal, full of spicy notes of cinnamon, cloves, a touch of ash, and the smell of an antique shop. The palate is fluid, sweet and fresh. Putting a drinking window to these wines feels a bit silly. You should drink it whenever you have the occasion."

Bodegas Toro Albalá Don Px Convento Selección 1946

100 Points — Luis Gutiérrez, Wine Advocate #208, August 2013

"An extreme wine, my first descriptor was ultra-mega-super concentrated. It is unbelievably powerful, both in the nose and the palate, full of umami, with sweet cinnamon, Christmas cake, camphor, petrol, lemongrass, Belgian chocolate and butter. Incredibly complex and rich, sweet, balanced and smooth in the palate, it is both very sweet and somehow salty, and with time it develops a black olive note. It combines the texture of the 1962 and the elegance of the 1949. It is as decadent as it gets. A real tour de force sweet wine."

Not nearly as sweet as expected, but with an astounding array of flavours including dates, figs, black truffle, Asian spices, vanilla, iodine, black liquorice and dark chocolate, with a slightly smoky finish. Bumbu Rum Co.

Bumbu Rum

Bumbu is made at a historic Barbadian distillery founded in 1893 and has continuously operated for more than 120 years. The rum is distilled using two continuous stills and aged up to 15 years in grade-A, once-used Kentucky bourbon barrels. The yeast used during fermentation is a distillery secret that dates back as far as 1840, when some of our original iron pot stills were cast. At Bumbu Rum Company, we handcraft our rums from a blend of sugarcane selected from eight countries throughout the West Indies and South America to bring exceptional balance and smoothness, without sacrificing richness and complexity that makes our Barbados distillery's rum the world's best – although we're a little biased!

Wilfred Wong Bevmo!

Best Buy

Beverage Testing Institute, June 14, 2013

Bulzai is a Nama-chozo sake, which means it is left un-pasteurized until the bottling stage; this adds zestiness to the mouthfeel and preserves of the flavours normally lost to the full pasteurization process. Refreshing aromas of bananas and tropical fruit. The finish offers hints of licorice and white pepper over stonedriven mineral notes. Best served chilled. Bulzai “hits the mark” with a wide range of appetizers and fish dishes.

The Reviews

Beer Advocate

"Garún is named for the strong and brave heroine of one of Iceland's most popular folktales "The deacon of Dark River (Myrká)." A tale of ghosts, undying love, and life triumphing over death told against the backdrop of elements essential to Iceland's character: ice, snow, and flooding waters whirling dark and mysterious. The same elements that inspire this rich, intense, bold and swirlingly varied Icelandic stout. Garún is a dark aura of intense richness and haunting aroma with notes of chocolate, licorice and coffee. Skál!"

Borg Brugghús Leifur Nordic Saison

Leifur is named after the Icelandic explorer Leifur (the Lucky) Eiríksson, the first European to discover North America – almost 500 years before Christopher Columbus. Leifur landed in a luscious place with plentiful stores of salmon, vines and grapes, and so named the land Vinland (Wineland). Leifur is brewed with organic arctic thyme and heather which, together with the Belgium yeast, gives the beer a dry, grassy taste and a delicately balanced aroma of citrus and pepper.

Bruton Lilith

91 Points — Wine Enthusiast Magazine, March 2011

SILVER MEDAL — World Beer Championships Award

86 Points (Highly Recommended)

Amber beer inspired by English bitter, and a strong American "cascade" hop, Lilith is clear with dense, persistent light beige froth. The fresh fruity citrus scent gives it a taste of grapefruit and resin, balanced with appealing candied malts and a bitter finale to leave your mouth dry and clean, ready for further sips. An arrogant beer, but also delicate and refreshing.

Bruton Dieci

93 Points (Exceptional)

92 Points — Wine Enthusiast Magazine, March 2011

The Dieci is a barley wine with intense and alcoholic taste, produced with no spices and with natural yeast to enhance its malted character and complexity resulting from a long boiling process in the cooking room. Its appearance is very dark with creamy thin froth, a scent that anticipates its taste of caramel and liquorice. Its stout structure and rich hops allow for this amazing barley wine to improve with age for years.
